Scribner Helps Organize Katrina Relief Effort

Legislative Fundraiser Aims At Offering Relief

HARTFORD- State David Scribner (R-Brookfield), along with Deputy Minority Leader Larry Cafero, State Representative Paul Doyle, and State senators Billy Ciotto and William Nickerson will co-host a legislative reception to raise funds to assist those who have been impacted by Hurricane Katrina. The funds that are raised will be donated through the Connecticut-based Americares charity.

The event will be held at Hot Tomato's at 1 Union Place in Hartford, on Thursday, September 22, 2005 from 4:00-6:00 p.m. Suggested donation is $50, and an ad book will be available for half-page ads at $150, and full-page ads at $250. While the event brings together legislators, legislative staff, and those from other branches and departments of state government, the event is open to the public.

"This is a great opportunity for members of the House and Senate, as well as our staff members and other members of state government to meet up with the public, and join together for a great cause," said Representative Scribner. "There are a great number of people suffering and in dire need following the disaster of Hurricane Katrina, and every bit we can do to assist will be very meaningful."

Anyone interested in attending the event can pay at the door. Those interested in taking out ads in the ad book can contact Val Conroy 860-240-8732.
